SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITIVE. APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE.

1. Toward the end of April 1955 public notices were put up in various places in the Decin District. The notices read approximately as follows:

   Citizens are warned that all permanent residents in the Decin District must apply for special permits at the nearest Public Security (VB) station. Those in possession of new Identity Cards (Obcanske Prukazy) will have a special entry made on the appropriate page. Everyone affected by this order must have his special permit by 1 July 1955.

   Those residing in other districts and intending to visit the Decin area must obtain special entry permits.

   Taking of pictures in the Frontier Zone is forbidden.

   People out at night may not leave the roads between the hours 9 P.M. and 6 A.M.

2. Barbed wire obstacles are being put up in the Hrensko (N50-52, E14-14) and Varnsdorf (N50-55, E14-37) areas. At the beginning of May 1955 three trucks were seen unloading barbed wire in the woods approximately three kilometers south of Hrensko.
